BUFFALO MAN DIES IN FIRE

Children's books a natural for Gillette native

KELLI HEITSTUMAN-TOMKO
THE SHERIDAN PRESS

SHERIDAN — One man and two dogs died Saturday in a fire that burned the living room of a home in the city.

John Knebel and his two horses were found dead in Knebel’s home after firefighters put out the fire. Buffalo Volunteer Fire Chief Clarence "Grinner" Gummer said a cause of death had not yet been released, but, so far, there was nothing suspicious about the incident.

Gummer said the fire was being treated as an accident, but the exact cause is not yet known.

"The whole room flashed," Gummer said. "By the time we got there the only thing burning was the soles." A "flash" describes the near-simultaneous combustion of an entire room at one time. This type of fire is often associated with electrical fires.

Gummer said a flash, or flashover, burns everything quickly.

Gummer said he didn’t know who called the fire, but a friend of Knebel’s was told that someone was in the home at the time of the fire.

"We were paged at 10:41 (7:41 p.m.)," Gummer said. "I don’t know if it was a neighbor who called or someone passing in a car who saw the flames.

"Quite a catch"

Joe McGrath catches a Rainbow Trout from his ice hole Saturday on Sibley Lake in the Bighorn Mountains west of Dayton. McGrath released the fish because he said it was too small.

BY KELLI HEITSTUMAN-TOMKO
THE SHERIDAN PRESS

GILLETTE (AP) — There has been a very busy year for self-proclaimed “Wyoming kid" and children’s nature book author Ken Keffer, and 2013 doesn’t look like it’ll let up either.

Keffer was born in Buffalo and grew up in Casper. As a researcher and educator, Keffer has traveled across the country and abroad, studying flying squirrels in Tongass National Forest in Alaska, surveying mice and vole populations in Grand Teton National Park and monitoring beaver casts in Mongolia.

Those opportunities influenced him and led him to spread nature education.

"Animals are such an appealing thing to write about and to read about. What kid doesn't love animals?" Keffer said.

What kid doesn’t love animals?

"Animals are such an appealing thing to write about and to read about. What kid doesn’t love animals?" — Ken Keffer

Children's books a natural for Gillette native
Governors urge Michigan man’s extradition to Wyo.

JACKSON (AP) — The governors of Wyoming and Michigan are trying to speed up extradition of a 64-year-old Michigan man investigators say molested children at a Wyoming youth camp decades ago.

Bill Bricker faces three counts in Wyoming of taking immoral acts with a child. Two men and one woman claim Bricker molested them when they were children at the Teton Valley Ranch Camp in the 1960s and 1980s. Teton County sheriff’s officials allege.

Bricker was a volunteer at the camp at the time. Now, citing his age and failing health, Bricker’s attorneys are fighting his extradition to Wyoming.

Wyoming Gov. Matt Mead formally asked Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder earlier this month to order Bricker to Wyoming to stand trial. As of Wednesday, a governor’s warrant issued by Snyder on Dec. 16 hadn’t been acted on by representatives of the Grand Traverse County Sheriff’s Office, the Jackson Hole News & Guide reports.

On Dec. 16, a warrant issued by Snyder on Dec. 16 hadn’t been acted on by representatives of the Grand Traverse County Sheriff’s Office, the Jackson Hole News & Guide reports.

“Teton County sheriff’s officials allege.

Warrant issued by Snyder on Dec. 16 hadn’t been acted on by representatives of the Grand Traverse County Sheriff’s Office, the Jackson Hole News & Guide reports.

The Jackson Hole News & Guide that the skier was found unconscious and upside down in the snow, but not buried. She says he in hospice care and a trip to Wyoming could be fatal to their client.

Wyoming Dept of Revenue Liquor Division attributed to Wyoming’s healthy economy, according to sales in Wyoming this year compared to last year is largely not been released.

The man was found unconscious at about 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Resort spokeswoman Anna Cole tells the Jackson Hole News & Guide that the skier was taken to a clinic in Teton Village at about 3:30 p.m. He was pronounced dead at 3:50 p.m.

The authors also are giving away a free school visit and copies of their two follow-up releases. Of the 2013 National Outdoor Book Award winners, Keffer said, and they both feel ambivalent about their new roles.

We’re so blue-collar, you know, whiskey and beer,” said Andy Czellecz, managing partner at Second Street Discount Liquor and Wine in Casper. “And that rings true with the blue-collar worker.”

“Just to step outside, you’ve got wildlife out there. It might be insects,” said Wava Tully of Lusk, one of the two nurses on board of trustees.

The UW faculty senate notes that the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner. Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient. The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient. The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

“Just to step outside, you’ve got wildlife out there. It might be insects,” said Wava Tully of Lusk, one of the two nurses on board of trustees.

The UW faculty senate notes that the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner. Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

Once a month they diagnose and treat adults. They handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient. Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient. The UW faculty senate notes that the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The UW faculty senate notes that the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient. The UW faculty senate notes that the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.

The Wyoming Tribune Eagle reports the hospital currently has affiliations with two internal medicine physicians and a nurse practitioner.

Often they handle one or more chronic illnesses in the same patient.
Registration for Bighorn Mountain Trail Run opens this week

FROM STAFF REPORTS

SHERIDAN — Registration for the 50- mile Bighorn Mountain Wild and Scenic Trail Run is open through Jan. 4.

Online registration at signuprun.com will begin at 4 a.m. Jan. 5, but locals can register in person at the Foot of the Bighorns in downtown Sheridan.

The race is scheduled for June 10. The registration varies based on the length of the race. The 10-mile run costs $60 while the 50K is $90 and the 100K is $100.

The 10-mile run to finish. For additional BighornTrailRun, see bighorntrailrun.com.

New Year’s Holiday Hours & Trash Collection
The City of Sheridan Solid Waste Division wishes you and your family a safe, happy holiday season!

CHRISTMAS CLEANUP • SHERIDAN

The City of Sheridan Solid Waste Division wishes you and your family a safe, happy holiday season!

Christmas Tree Drop Sites

December 14th • January 15th

• City Landfill (Summer Road)
• State Park parking area (811 16th Street & 262 6th Street)
• 5th & Highland
• 5th & Highland (Holiday Lodge)
• Sundance Fine Art (12th Street & College Avenue)

www.sheridanwy.net or call 674-8461

For more information, check www.sheridanwy.net or call 674-8461

NEW YEAR’S TRASH COLLECTION

The City of Sheridan Landfill, Recycle Center and City Hall will be closed January 1, 2016, in observance of the New Year’s Holiday. New Year’s trash collection will be on its regular schedule.

Thank you for being a partner in keeping our community clean this holiday season!

Sheridan, Wyoming
Your daily look at late-breaking news, upcoming events and the sto-rsties that will be talked about Monday:

1. ARASHA JET LOST IN STORMS OVER INDONESIA
   It’s the third shock in four years for Malaysia’s aircraft this year, including the disappearance of Malindo Air Flight 370 in March.

2. U.S. NATO MIRAGE FORMAL END OF WAR IN AFGHANISTAN
   Beginning Jan. 1, a new U.S. led mission will provide training and support for Afghani-stan’s military in its battle against insurgents.

3. FREE EUPHORIC ON FERRY TRAVELING FROM GREECE TO ITALY
   Hundreds of passengers huddle in gale-force winds on the boat’s upper decks, awaiting rescue.

4. WHO’S RAISING BIGGER POLITICAL TENT TO FACE MINORITY CHALLENGE
   The GOP’s next class of presidential aspirants tends may include two potential favorites: Indian-American government leader and an AFRICAN-AMERICAN congressman.

5. NYPD CHIEF CRITICIZES RANK-AND-FILE DIVIDENDS
   Police Commissioner William
   Bratton says it was wrong for hundreds of the city’s police officers to go on strike while backs on the mayor at a Wednesday hearing for a small offfers.

6. EROLA FIGHT NOT UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCE
   The campaign to halt the exploitation of the Erola African is finding itself back on the front line, with an estimated
   million people
   which is killing thousands more.

7. WHY EYP IS DARING OKLAHOMA GODS & KINGS
   The regime says it wants to create a biblical epic within its history, which is based on the “racist” image of Jews.

8. ATLANTIC CITY TELLS 2014 GOOD RIDDANCE
   Fear of the city’s 31 casinos shut down during the past year is
   00,000 workers lost their jobs.

9. WHICH COUPLE IS CALLING IT QUITS
   Chris Rock has filed for divorce from Malaak
   Simmons after 19 years of marriage and two children.

10. IN HARBAUGH OUT AS COACH OF ARKANSAS
    Arkansas Coach Bret Bielema, who guided San Francisco to the
    strongest NFC championship in 1957 at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

From the Associated Press:

Your daily look at late-breaking news, upcoming events and the sto-
rsties that will be talked about Monday:

1. ARASHA JET LOST IN STORMS OVER INDONESIA
   It’s the third shock in four years for Malaysia’s aircraft this year, including the disappearance of Malindo Air Flight 370 in March.

2. U.S. NATO MIRAGE FORMAL END OF WAR IN AFGHANISTAN
   Beginning Jan. 1, a new U.S. led mission will provide training and support for Afghani-stan’s military in its battle against insurgents.

3. FREE EUPHORIC ON FERRY TRAVELING FROM GREECE TO ITALY
   Hundreds of passengers huddle in gale-force winds on the boat’s upper decks, awaiting rescue.

4. WHO’S RAISING BIGGER POLITICAL TENT TO FACE MINORITY CHALLENGE
   The GOP’s next class of presidential aspirants
   tends may include two potential favorites: Indian-American government leader and an AFRICAN-AMERICAN
   congressman.

5. NYPD CHIEF CRITICIZES RANK-AND-FILE DIVIDENDS
   Police Commissioner William
   Bratton says it was wrong for hundreds of
   the city’s police officers to go on strike while backs on the mayor at a Wednesday hearing for a small offfers.

6. EROLA FIGHT NOT UNINTENDED CONSEQUENCE
   The campaign to halt the exploitation of the Erola
   African is finding itself back on the front line, with an estimated
   million people
   which is killing thousands more.

7. WHY EYP IS DARING OKLAHOMA GODS & KINGS
   The regime says it wants to create a biblical epic within its history, which is based on the “racist” image of Jews.

8. ATLANTIC CITY TELLS 2014 GOOD RIDDANCE
   Fear of the city’s 31 casinos shut down during the past year is
   00,000 workers lost their jobs.

9. WHICH COUPLE IS CALLING IT QUITS
   Chris Rock has filed for divorce from Malaak
   Simmons after 19 years of marriage and two children.

10. IN HARBAUGH OUT AS COACH OF ARKANSAS
    Arkansas Coach Bret Bielema, who guided San Francisco to the
    strongest NFC championship in 1957 at Madison Square Garden in New York City.
In our backyard

Clouds begin to cover Black Mountain on Saturday in the Bighorn Mountains; in warmer months, the mountain is a popular day hike that features an old lookout at the peak.

SHERIDAN FIRE AND RESCUE
Friday
• Rocky Mountain Ambulance assist, 1400 block North Gould Street, 1:04 p.m.
• RMA assist, 1400 block Omnir Avenue, 11:39 a.m.
Saturday
• RMA assist, 300 block East Second Street, 2:45 a.m.
• Medical, 700 block Long Drive, 10:01 p.m.
• Accident, intersection of Burkitt and South Main streets, 8:01 p.m.
• Activated alarm, 1300 block North Heights Boulevard, 11:26 p.m.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN AMBULANCE
Friday-Sunday
• No reports available at press time.

SHERIDAN POLICE DEPARTMENT
Information in the police reports is taken from the SPD website.

Wednesday
• Burglar alarm, Coffeen Avenue, 12:00 a.m.
• Animal Round, West Fifth Street, 2:08 a.m.
• Burglar alarm, Coffeen Avenue, 7:07 a.m.
• Welfare check Sheridan area, 7:45 a.m.
• Dog at large, Ponderosa Drive, 8:55 a.m.
• Dog at large, Stonegate Drive, 8:06 a.m.
• Mopedist assist, Coffeen Avenue, 9:40 a.m.
• Alarm, Sheridan area, 9:57 a.m.
• Death investigation (suspected natural causes), Warren Avenue, 10:06 a.m.
• Welfare check, Kendrick Park, 10:19 a.m.
• Warrant service, Beaver Street, 10:42 a.m.
• Accident, East Fifth Street, 10:02 a.m.
• Phone harassment, Bryant Street, noon
• Simple assault, Sugarland Drive, 12:49 p.m.
• Domestic, Harrison Street, 12:55 p.m.
• DUI, Coffeen Avenue, 1:52 p.m.
• Accident, Coffeen Avenue, 3:00 p.m.
• Welfare check, North Main Street, 3:44 p.m.
• Accident, North Main Street, 4:15 p.m.
• Domestic property, North Lincoln Avenue, 4:43 p.m.
• Dog at large, North Main Street, 5:38 p.m.
• Drug activity, Omnir Avenue, 5:48 p.m.
• Stolen vehicle, Long Drive, 6:03 p.m.
• Traffic stop, North Main Street, 6:13 p.m.
• Welfare check, Blue Sky Court, 7:32 p.m.
• Suspicious circumstance, West Fifth Street, 8:24 p.m.
• Domestic dispute, North Main Street, 7:32 a.m.
• Burglar alarm, Coffeen Avenue, 7:32 a.m.
• Removal of subject, Coffeen Avenue, 2:01 p.m.
• Hit and run, Long Drive, 2:34 p.m.
• Welfare check, Ridgeway Avenue, 3:08 p.m.
• Death investigation (suspected natural causes), Florence Avenue, 3:58 p.m.
• DUI, North Main Street, 4:40 p.m.
• Animal Round, Sioux Street, 5:20 p.m.
• Medical, West 14th Street, 5:35 p.m.
• Suspicious person, Brandon Street, 5:46 p.m.
• Gas theft, East Braduncado Lane, 7:37 p.m.
• Dog at large, Ash Avenue, 7:32 p.m.
• Illegal parking, Gladstone, Street, 10:00 p.m.
• Warrant service, Works Street, 11:47 p.m.

Friday-Sunday
• No reports available at press time.

SHERIDAN JAIL
Friday-Sunday
• No reports available at press time.

ARRESTS
Names of individuals arrested for domestic assault and with no valid warrant will not be released until those individuals have appeared in court.

Friday
• No reports available at press time.

JAIL
Daily inmate count: 82

Friday
• Female inmate count: 12

Inmates at treatment facilities (not counted in daily inmate count): 5

Saturday
• Number of book-ins for the weekend: 13

Number of releases for the weekend:

Wednesday
Friday-Saturday
-10/-9
Monday
Tuesday
Sun/Moon
Sunrise
Sunset
Moonrise
Moonset
Electricity
Timezone
Central Time
12/26/2014
Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DEATH NOTICES

ROY M. SHARP

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

STANLEY K. MORGAN
Stanley K. Morgan, 67, of Sheridan passed away on Wednesday, December 24, 2014 at Sheridan Manor. Arrangements have been entrusted with Champion Funeral Home.

RICHARD “RICK” KAPP
Richard “Rick” Kapp, 67, of Sheridan, passed away on Friday, December 26, 2014, at his residence.

http://kanefuneral.com/REMEMBER/2014/12/24/39536812

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DEATH NOTICES

ROY M. SHARP

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

STANLEY K. MORGAN
Stanley K. Morgan, 67, of Sheridan passed away on Wednesday, December 24, 2014 at Sheridan Manor. Arrangements have been entrusted with Champion Funeral Home.

RICHARD “RICK” KAPP
Richard “Rick” Kapp, 67, of Sheridan, passed away on Friday, December 26, 2014, at his residence.

http://kanefuneral.com/REMEMBER/2014/12/24/39536812

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

DERAL STILES
Derald Stiles, 75, formerly of Sheridan passed away peacefully at home in Billings, MT surrounded by his family on December 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Online condolences may be written at www.kanefuneral.com.

Kane Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.
CODY (AP) — The U.S. Forest Service will keep three areas southeast of Yellowstone vehicle-free to protect wildlife and mountain bikers.

The Greater Yellowstone Coalition environmental group praised the move.

Those areas should remain off-limits to motorized travel and mountain biking,
the draft forest plan also proposes protecting theFranc Peak and Wood River areas south-est of Montana.

Those areas should remain off-limits to motorized travel and mountain biking.

For 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the Forest Service will keep three areas southeast of Yellowstone vehicle-free to protect wildlife and mountain bikers.

The Greater Yellowstone Coalition environmental group praised the move.

Those areas should remain off-limits to motorized travel and mountain biking,
the draft forest plan also proposes protecting the Franc Peak and Wood River areas south-
est of Montana.

Those areas should remain off-limits to motorized travel and mountain biking.

For 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 million uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.

In 2015, all taxpayers have to report to the IRS on their health insurance status the previous year. Most will check a box. It’s also when the IRS starts collecting fines from some uninsured people, and deciding if others qualify for exemptions.

What many people don’t realize is that the penalties go up significantly. Only 3 percent of uninsured people know what the fine for 2015 will be, according to a recent poll by the nonpartisan Kaiser Family Foundation.

FIGURING out your potential exposure if you’re uninsured isn’t simple.

For 2014, the fine is the greater of $95 per person or 1 percent of household income above the threshold for filing taxes. It will jump to $1,000 in 2015, and $2,085 in 2016. By 2016, the average fine will be about $1,000, based on government figures.

People can get a sense of the potential hit by going online and using the Tax Policy Center’s Affordable Care Act penalty calculator. Many taxpayers may be able to get a pass.

Based on congressional analysis, tax preparation giant H&R Block says roughly 4 mil-
ion uninsured people will pay penalties.

The 2015 fines will qualify taxpayers with earnings from the list of more than 30 waivers.

Because the coverage mandate and fines were a constitutionally valid exercise under Congress’ authority to tax.
Santa Clara, Calif. (AP) — Jim Harbaugh walked through the locker room saying emotional goodbyes, offering a handshake or hug while taking his players well and planning his long-anticipated but bittersweet departure from the San Francisco 49ers.

He just didn’t specify where exactly he is headed next, though it might wind up being one of football’s most poetically kept secrets. The hunches were everywhere.

Would harbaugh confirm or deny that he is indeed first in line to accept the job at alma mater, Michigan, except to acknowledge he wouldn’t be around come next season with the Wolverines.

“I feel good about this team,” new coach John Fox said, adding he’ll feel even better after “a week on the couch,”

The Broncos (12-4) secured the AFC's No. 2 seed and a first-round bye at most games this season.
es, we have a great first quarter and we long range. We were coming off a 119-109 victory over just not very good in every aspect of the game. LeBron James, who had 17 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists, said, “I think the guys on this team, they actually believe in Coach Sparano,” Woodson. “I think we’re in the market for a new coach and finding out there and playing basketball. LeBron James said he got hit in the left quad late in the first half, but he started the third quarter.

SUNRISE, Fla. (AP) — Brad Boyes scored a first-period power-play goal in Florida’s four-goal third period, and the Panthers beat the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-4 on Sunday night. Willie Mitchell, Dmitry Kulikov and Scottie Upshall also scored for the third time this season. Mitchell, another Ontario native who was traded from St. Louis to the Panthers last summer, has been one of the NHL’s stingiest defensemen.

FOR FROM

HARBAUGH: Future in doubt all season

San Francisco was eliminated from playoff contention with a 177 loss at Seattle on Dec. 14, its second defeat to the rival Seahawks this season. Harbaugh guided the 49ers to three straight NFC Championship games and a Super Bowl near miss.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Authorities in the Dominican Republic have questioned Chicago Cubs shortstop Starlin Castro after a night club shooting in which several people were injured. Police spokesman Jacobo Montes said Castro was apparently involved in the shooting, but he has no further details. The shooting occurred early Saturday in the north- eastern town of Monte Cristi, where the 24-

INJURIES: Bruton briefly hospitalized

Cleveland trailing 95-71. “We’re not a very good team, as far as our two best games of the year back to back, and our three best games of the year. Mitchell, another Ontario native who was traded from St. Louis to the Panthers last summer, has been one of the NHL’s stingiest defensemen.

RUSHING, Fla. (AP) — Brad Boyes scored a first-period power-play goal in Florida’s four-goal third period, and the Panthers beat the Toronto Maple Leafs 6-4 on Sunday night. Willie Mitchell, Dmitry Kulikov and Scottie Upshall also scored for the third time this season. Mitchell, another Ontario native who was traded from St. Louis to the Panthers last summer, has been one of the NHL’s stingiest defensemen. A Minnesota-born native who was traded from St. Louis to the Panthers last summer, has been one of the NHL’s stingiest defensemen.

Panthers rally for 6-4 victory over Maple Leafs

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Authorities in the Dominican Republic have questioned Chicago Cubs shortstop Starlin Castro after a night club shooting in which several people were injured. Police spokesman Jacobo Montes said Castro was apparently involved in the shooting, but he has no further details. The shooting occurred early Saturday in the north- eastern town of Monte Cristi, where the 24-
Buffalo 17, New England 9
Minnesota 13, Chicago 9
Kansas City 19, San Diego 7
Indiana 27, Tennessee 10

West

Chicago              5      11            0        .313
Minnesota           7        9            0        .438 x-Detroit            11        5            0        .688
y-Green Bay     12        4            0        .750

North

Tampa Bay         2      14            0        .125
y-Carolina           7        8            1        .469
N.Y. Giants         6      10            0        .375
y-Dallas            12        4            0        .750
San Diego          9        7            0        .563
y-Denver           12        4            0        .750

East

x-Cincinnati      10        5            1        .656

National Hockey League

Central Division

Washington        21        7          8        .738

East

New York          9        8          5        .588
Philadelphia      35      14          15         6        34
N.Y. Islanders   35      23          11         1        47
Pittsburgh         35      22            8         5        49

Metropolitan Division

New Jersey      37      12          18         7        31
Philadelphia      35      14          15         6        34
N.Y. Islanders   35      23          11         1        47
Pittsburgh         35      22            8         5        49

Pacific Division

Los Angeles      36      23          8         6        54
Anaheim           38      24            8         6        54
Colorado           35      13          14         8        34
Nashville           34      23            9         2        48
Chicago            36      24          10         2        50

NHL

Natural Hockey League

By The Associated Press

MONDAY , DECEMBER 29, 2014 www.thesheridanpress.com THE SHERIDAN PRESS
DEAR ABBY: I'm a single mom, Yoko Nakamura, of Yokohama, Japan. My son was born 17 years ago. I never cut ties or let it go. I am a strong and independent woman. My child's father has done nothing for his children. He would suddenly develop an interest in his kids when he needs something from them. What should I do? Should I cut ties or hope for any possibility of reconciliation — which is impossible? A man who "tries" to be responsible but never really is. It's time to get my heart health to your advantage. You may be alarmingly down a whole generation!

Julia Child knew that reducing a sauce 'positively deepens flavors.' And reducing stress makes every-thing more positive too, from your mental stability to your lover's. Let's start with your son. I feel like a mother who has been dumped, so I reason that my son will someday long for and want to know his real father. Even though he renounced his responsibility, he took it back when he realized it to be too late. I never see him there for my child. We are geographically miles apart, and I don't even know if he is capable of being a parent or even want to be. Every time he contacts me, I refuse to take any responsi-bility. What should I do? Should I continue to be the one to message him informing him about the milestones? Should I keep this connection going or let it go? — CONFUSED SINGLE MOM, YOKOHAMA, JAPAN

Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips, known collectively as Dear Abby, is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Pauline Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Dear Abby is written by Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a simple mom. My child's father has refused to take any responsi-bility since the baby was born. I never cut ties because I'm sure my son will be fed, clothed, and been token child support to ensure for his children pays at least the pattern that has been set apart, and I no longer expect for his children. He would suddenly develop an interest in his kids when he needs something from them. What should I do? Should I cut ties or hope for any possibility of reconciliation — which is impossible? A man who "tries" to be responsible but never really is. It's time to get your heart health to your advantage. You may be alarmingly down a whole generation!

Julia Child knew that reducing a sauce 'positively deepens flavors.' And reducing stress makes every-thing more positive too, from your mental stability to your lover's. Let's start with your son. I feel like a mother who has been dumped, so I reason that my son will someday long for and want to know his real father. Even though he renounced his responsibility, he took it back when he realized it to be too late. I never see him there for my child. We are geographically miles apart, and I don't even know if he is capable of being a parent or even want to be. Every time he contacts me, I refuse to take any responsi-bility. What should I do? Should I continue to be the one to message him informing him about the milestones? Should I keep this connection going or let it go? — CONFUSED SINGLE MOM, YOKOHAMA, JAPAN

Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips, known collectively as Dear Abby, is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Pauline Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Dear Abby is written by Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a single mom, Yoko Nakamura, of Yokohama, Japan. My son was born 17 years ago. I never cut ties or let it go. I am a strong and independent woman. My child's father has done nothing for his children. He would suddenly develop an interest in his kids when he needs something from them. What should I do? Should I cut ties or hope for any possibility of reconciliation — which is impossible? A man who "tries" to be responsible but never really is. It's time to get your heart health to your advantage. You may be alarmingly down a whole generation!

Julia Child knew that reducing a sauce 'positively deepens flavors.' And reducing stress makes every-thing more positive too, from your mental stability to your lover's. Let's start with your son. I feel like a mother who has been dumped, so I reason that my son will someday long for and want to know his real father. Even though he renounced his responsibility, he took it back when he realized it to be too late. I never see him there for my child. We are geographically miles apart, and I don't even know if he is capable of being a parent or even want to be. Every time he contacts me, I refuse to take any responsi-bility. What should I do? Should I continue to be the one to message him informing him about the milestones? Should I keep this connection going or let it go? — CONFUSED SINGLE MOM, YOKOHAMA, JAPAN

Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips, known collectively as Dear Abby, is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Pauline Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Dear Abby is written by Pauline Phillips and Jeanne Phillips.
Fernando Torres returns on loan to Atletico Madrid

MADRID (AP) — Fernando Torres could make his return to Atletico Madrid return in a Copa del Rey match against rivals Real Madrid on Friday night after missing out on the club's title-winning campaign of last season.

Torres, who joined from AC Milan in July 2014, is expected to return to the club on loan after six months of the new season.

The striker scored 10 goals in 21 appearances last season for Atleti, helping the team win their first La Liga title in 18 years.

He left the club in September 2013 after failing to agree terms with the club on a new contract.

Torres rejoined the club in 2011 after spending six years at Liverpool.

He has scored 51 goals in 135 appearances for Atletico in all competitions.

On Saturday, Chelsea sent the 30-year-old to Atletico on loan to the Madrid suburb of Fuente de Cantos followed by a loan return to the club in July 2015.

He leaves Chelsea as the club's all-time leading goalscorer with 53 goals in 107 appearances.

Torres had a successful loan spell with Atletico in 2011-12, scoring 11 goals in 18 appearances.

He won the La Liga title with Atletico in 2014 and was named the club's player of the year.

On Tuesday, Torres was confirmed as the club's new captain, succeeding Diego Godin, who left the club last year.

Torres is expected to play a key role in Atletico's Champions League campaign this season.

He has scored in all four of his appearances this season, including a goal in the group stage against FC Porto.

Torres has also scored in Atletico's opening two matches in the group stage against Genk and FC Porto.

He is looking forward to facing his former club, Chelsea, in the group stage of the Champions League.

Torres, who has represented Spain at every level from Under-16 to senior level, has scored 51 goals in 135 appearances for Spain.

He has won two European Championships with Spain and the 2010 World Cup for club in September.

He scored once in the 2010 World Cup final, helping Spain to a 1-0 win over the Netherlands.

On Saturday, Chelsea sent the 30-year-old to Atletico on loan to the Madrid suburb of Fuente de Cantos followed by a loan return to the club in July 2015.

He leaves Chelsea as the club's all-time leading goalscorer with 53 goals in 107 appearances.

Torres had a successful loan spell with Atletico in 2011-12, scoring 11 goals in 18 appearances.

He won the La Liga title with Atletico in 2014 and was named the club's player of the year.

On Tuesday, Torres was confirmed as the club's new captain, succeeding Diego Godin, who left the club last year.

Torres is expected to play a key role in Atletico's Champions League campaign this season.

He has scored in all four of his appearances this season, including a goal in the group stage against FC Porto.

Torres has also scored in Atletico's opening two matches in the group stage against Genk and FC Porto.

He is looking forward to facing his former club, Chelsea, in the group stage of the Champions League.

Torres, who has represented Spain at every level from Under-16 to senior level, has scored 51 goals in 135 appearances for Spain.

He has won two European Championships with Spain and the 2010 World Cup for club in September.

He scored once in the 2010 World Cup final, helping Spain to a 1-0 win over the Netherlands.

On Saturday, Chelsea sent the 30-year-old to Atletico on loan to the Madrid suburb of Fuente de Cantos followed by a loan return to the club in July 2015.

He leaves Chelsea as the club's all-time leading goalscorer with 53 goals in 107 appearances.

Torres had a successful loan spell with Atletico in 2011-12, scoring 11 goals in 18 appearances.

He won the La Liga title with Atletico in 2014 and was named the club's player of the year.

On Tuesday, Torres was confirmed as the club's new captain, succeeding Diego Godin, who left the club last year.

Torres is expected to play a key role in Atletico's Champions League campaign this season.

He has scored in all four of his appearances this season, including a goal in the group stage against FC Porto.

Torres has also scored in Atletico's opening two matches in the group stage against Genk and FC Porto.

He is looking forward to facing his former club, Chelsea, in the group stage of the Champions League.

Torres, who has represented Spain at every level from Under-16 to senior level, has scored 51 goals in 135 appearances for Spain.

He has won two European Championships with Spain and the 2010 World Cup for club in September.

He scored once in the 2010 World Cup final, helping Spain to a 1-0 win over the Netherlands.
BIRTHDAY Guy: “Prove your worth. Set your mind to a goal, and work towards it.” —Garth Brooks

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Hints from Heloise

Dear Readers: Here is this week’s mailbag of letters on popular sign-speak:

Dear Heloise:
I saw you say: someone who has left the turn signal on under the hood. Can you explain all the Jedediah this

Dear Heloise:
I was reading an article about the Road Runner. The

Dear Heloise:
I wrote a book on the subject of asteroids. I was

Dear Heloise:
I was at a party. A woman came up to me and said,

Dear Heloise:
I was at a party and a woman was playing cards.

Dear Heloise:
I was practicing my golf swing. I

Dear Heloise:
I was at a party. A woman was

Dear Heloise:
I was looking through a book of

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar.

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I

Dear Heloise:
I was looking at a calendar. I
Public notices allow citizens to monitor their government and make sure that it is working in their best interest. Independent newspapers assist in this cause by covering our partnership with the people's right to know through public notices. By offering an independent and archived record of public notices, newspapers have a strong trusting relationship between government and its citizens. Newspapers have the experience and expertise in publishing public notices and have done so since the Revolutionary War. Today, they remain an established, trustworthy and neutral forum that helps transfer information between government and citizens.

Public notices are the lasting record of how the public's resources are used and are presented in the most efficient and effective means possible.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSED SALE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Wyoming Statutes, Annotated, Sections 34–4–104 and 34–105 (2014), that a certain mortgage dated December 22, 2011, was executed and delivered by Wil St. George, together with the real property described therein, as security for a debt or obligation.

The above sale will be conducted by the Sheriff or the Sheriff's Deputy at the place of sale, which will be the office of the Sheriff, County of Sheridan, Wyoming, on December 8, 2014, in Book 795 at Page 313 as Document No. 2011-687025, will be published in the newspaper the Sheridan Press. Parties in interest are hereby notified of the sale and are required to appear at the sale and to establish their claim directly in the Sheriff's Court. The Sheriff reserves the right to delay the sale for any reason.

The full Notice of Foreclosed Sale can be found at the County Clerk’s Office, Sheridan, Wyoming.

The legal process of extinguishing a person’s interest in property, usually as the result of a default under a mortgage. Foreclosure may be accomplished by order of a court or by the Sheriff or the Sheriff’s Deputy in a sale to the highest bidder at a public auction of the property being foreclosed. Foreclosed properties are advertised in public notices. This notice, if not advertised in the newspaper, will be published in the newspaper the Sheridan Press. Parties in interest are hereby notified of the sale and are required to appear at the sale and to establish their claim directly in the Sheriff’s Court. The Sheriff reserves the right to delay the sale for any reason.

The property being foreclosed upon may be subject to other liens and encumbrances that will not be extinguished at the sale and any prospective bidders are encouraged to contact the County Clerk’s Office to further information to exercise their right of access to public records and public meetings.

OUTDOORS

This photo was taken on September 20 in 1934. Winter came a bit early that year! It is from the Wakefield collection in the Sheridan County Museum's Memory Book Project.

GORDON ROSE is an attorney who works as a commercial fly tier and operates the Sheridan WYO Rising Waters, which is part of a non-profit organization which teaches disabled military veterans fly fishing, fly tying, and rod building as part of their therapy.

Tom Mclntyre

Tom Mcintyre is a novelist whose book, “The Snow Leopard’s Tale,” was published in September by Graycliff Press. He is also contributing editor for Sports Afield and Field and Stream magazines. His previous book, “The Trouterman,” was published by Skyhorse Publishing. Follow Tom on Twitter @tmcintrypeterson.

Gordon Rose

Gordon Rose

The Sheridan Press publishes Legal Notices under the following schedule:
- Monday Noon – It will be published in Thursday’s paper.
- Tuesday Noon – It will be published in Friday’s paper.
- Wednesday Noon – It will be published in Saturday’s paper.
- Thursday Noon – It will be published in Monday’s paper.
- Friday Noon – It will be published in Wednesday’s paper.

Complete Information, descriptions and billing information are required with each legal notice. A PDF is required if there are any signatures, with a Wood Document attached.

Failure to include this Information will cause delay in publication. All legal notices must be paid in full before an "AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION" will be issued.

Please contact The Sheridan Press legal advertising department at 672-2431 if you have questions.
Reports: Kuroda to return to Japan, pitch for Carp

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese media report free-agent right-hander Hiroki Kuroda will return to Japan in 2015 to pitch for his first team, the Hiroshima Toyo Carp.

The reports say Kuroda, who turns 40 this year after exceeding 200 in his first three seasons. He worked 199 innings in 1,319 career major league innings. He has a 3.71 ERA. He was 79-79 with a 3.45 ERA in the major leagues, awaiting his return.

Kuroda was perhaps the most durable free-agent right-hander Hiroki Kuroda

Kuroda pitched in February, has signed a one year con-

Stony Brook rallies to top No. 13 Washington 62-57

SEATTLE (AP) — Stony Brook traveled a long way for a huge victory.

James Warney banked in a short runner with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

Stony Brook overcame a 16-point deficit to stun No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night. Stony Brook (8-6) finished on a 17-2 run, with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

It's only the second win ever against a top-25 team for Stony Brook.

"Mentally, we just weren't there," Romar said. "With so much at stake, you wonder why not. Obviously, me as the head coach, should have had our guys better prepared to go out and finish this up, but I didn't do a good enough job, obviously."

"It was outrebounded 47-45 by Washington, didn't do a good enough job, obviously."

SEATTLE (AP) — Stony Brook traveled a long way for a huge victory. James Warney banked in a short runner with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

It's only the second win ever against a top-25 team for Stony Brook.

"I thought we were getting decent looks," said Williams-Goss, who scored 15 points and had four blocks for Washington.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

SEATTLE (AP) — Stony Brook traveled a long way for a huge victory. James Warney banked in a short runner with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

It's only the second win ever against a top-25 team for Stony Brook.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Betty Bambino won the $100,000 Daytona Stakes by a half-length Sunday in his stakes debut at Santa Anita.

Bambino by Martin Garcia, Betty Bambino ran 1:12.40 on the downhill turf course in 1:12.40 and paid $8, $4 and $2 as the 3-1 second choice.

"I'll bet O'Mara returned $3.20 and $3.00, while 6-5 favorite Sweet Swap was second to return $8.20 and $6.20 to show.

Garcia rode the race in considerable pain.

"My horse hit me in the head and then hit me in the right knee too against the gate," Garcia said. "He was leaning on my knee that was in between him and the gate. In the moment, the win was just exciting with the adrena- line. Now I just wanted to get back to the office to get checked out.

Bettys Bambino won his third straight race on Santa Anita’s turf course, and fourth in five tries.

The victory, worth $60,000, increased Betty Bambino’s career earnings to $258,036, with three wins in nine starts.

In the $75,000 Kalookan Queen Stakes, Arlington’s Rose ran down 6-5 favorite Doinghardtimeagain was another 2 3/4 lengths back in third and paid $4 to show.

Stony Brook rallies to top No. 13 Washington 62-57

SEATTLE (AP) — Stony Brook traveled a long way for a huge victory. James Warney banked in a short runner with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

It's only the second win ever against a top-25 team for Stony Brook.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Betty Bambino won the $100,000 Daytona Stakes by a half-length Sunday in his stakes debut at Santa Anita.

Bambino by Martin Garcia, Betty Bambino ran 1:12.40 on the downhill turf course in 1:12.40 and paid $8, $4 and $2 as the 3-1 second choice.

"I'll bet O'Mara returned $3.20 and $3.00, while 6-5 favorite Sweet Swap was second to return $8.20 and $6.20 to show.

Garcia rode the race in considerable pain.

"My horse hit me in the head and then hit me in the right knee too against the gate," Garcia said. "He was leaning on my knee that was in between him and the gate. In the moment, the win was just exciting with the adrena- line. Now I just wanted to get back to the office to get checked out.

Bettys Bambino won his third straight race on Santa Anita’s turf course, and fourth in five tries.

The victory, worth $60,000, increased Betty Bambino’s career earnings to $258,036, with three wins in nine starts.

In the $75,000 Kalookan Queen Stakes, Arlington’s Rose ran down 6-5 favorite Doinghardtimeagain was another 2 3/4 lengths back in third and paid $4 to show.

Stony Brook rallies to top No. 13 Washington 62-57

SEATTLE (AP) — Stony Brook traveled a long way for a huge victory. James Warney banked in a short runner with 30 seconds left to give Stony Brook its first lead, and the Long Island university team from a power conference for the America East school, which knocked off No. 13 Washington 62-57 on Sunday night.

It's only the second win ever against a top-25 team for Stony Brook.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.

"I'm a confident player, I know I can make shots, big shots," said Puriefoy, who also scored 10 points.