Stray to Service

Service dog in training, Hank, patiently awaits a command from his trainer Shan Foster at the Country Pet Inn Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

Country Pet Inn owner and dog trainer Shan Foster discusses the qualities he looks for in a potential service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

Stray to Service — When Shan Foster walks through the Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter in search of a dog, he’s typically looking for something special. It’s not a rare breed worth thousands of dollars; he needs stability.

Foster and shelter executive director Jill Moriarty have teamed up to pair dogs brought into the shelter with veterans. Foster has years of experience training dogs, both through U.S. Department of Defense work and law enforcement. Now, he runs the Country Pet Inn in Sheridan County. He trains dogs for everything from basic obedience and behavior modification to address aggression, anxiety and destructive habits to hunting, detection and personal protection.

BY KRISTEN CZABAN
KRISTEN@THESHERIDANPRESS.COM

Western states face huge coal mine cleanup liability, study says

BY CHARLES ERSKIN
CASPER STAR-TRIBUNE
VIA WYOMING NEWS EXCHANGE

CASPER — Wyoming has a colossal cleanup project on its hands. About 85,000 acres of land sits unclaimed by coal companies in the state — by far the most acreage among its Western peers, according to a new report published Friday by the Western Organization of Resource Councils.

“Western coal-producing states face a looming dilemma, and the costs could be huge,” said Bob LeResche, an editor of the report and board member of Powder River Basin Resource Council and the Western Organization of Resource Councils.

Throughout the West, over one-third of all land disturbed by strip-mining has yet to be reclaimed after a half-century of intensive extraction in the region. North Dakota and Montana follow the Equality State with 25,000 acres and 17,000 acres, respectively, in unreclaimed land from coal mining, the conservation group found. But Wyoming environmental regulators said despite significant cleanup still ahead, the state remains sufficiently protected and on track to complete all reclamation obligations.

Mounting cleanup liabilities come at a time when the energy sector is undergoing an unprecedented shift away from coal production.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Gov. Gordon grants awareness proclamation

BY ALLAYANA DARROW
ALLAYANA.DARROW@THESHERIDANPRESS.COM

Gov. Mark Gordon, Terri Markham and Alexandra Stevenson share the proclamation at the capitol Thursday, Jan. 9, 2020.

Gov. Mark Gordon, Terri Markham and Alexandra Stevenson share the proclamation at the capitol Thursday, Jan. 9, 2020.

SEE AWARENESS, PAGE 8

SEE FAITH, PAGE 4

SEE SPORTS, PAGE 8

SEE CLASSIFIEDS, PAGE 8

SEE LEGALS, PAGE 8
Tehran to step back from efforts by Washington and allies would react. Despite pall over what had at first U.S. conflict cast a new act,” he said. Morrison also said it appeared to be a similar statements. Morrison'sCanadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, whose countelligence. The airliner could have military bases housing U.S.

strike could well have been a mistake amid rocket launch-

They said the fiery missile They said, the missiles in military

The New York Times post-sion from Iranian authorities

Danilov said. The Tor is a Russian-made

"A strike by a missile, possi-

Danilov said. But as time passed, communication ultimately

"Us, as a community, we have our views on

The report and flight-tracking

passengers and nine crew

all 298 people aboard.

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

the coalition said

Last March, our ears were passed around the junior high head that it was, "It's really good to be a part of our community, because it was our fault. I didn't do a good job commu-

I've said that many times,” Brown said. "I know

The coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

Both coalition members, as the district failed to meet in 48 weeks, but that goal

the pilot program initially

Moriarty said the goal of

Foster said, they can usu-

Moriarty said the goal of

The New York Times posted a video Thursday saying that the airliner and their communication with students, teachers and parents was poor.

Smith also said it appeared to be a

the coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

To place dogs with

Foster and Moriarty have worked with the

Sheridan Veterans Affairs Health Care System and other organizations to iden-

and are appropriate candi-

other organizations to iden-

the Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

The Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was a moment that roughly 10 years later, the same moment struck the Boeing

The crash happened just a few minutes after the floatation vehicles of the 298 people aboard.

The Tor is a Russian-made

"A strike by a missile, possi-

Danilov said. But as time passed, communication ultimately

"Us, as a community, we have our views on

The report and flight-tracking

passengers and nine crew

all 298 people aboard.

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

The coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

To place dogs with

Foster and Moriarty have worked with the

Sheridan Veterans Affairs Health Care System and other organizations to iden-

and are appropriate candi-

other organizations to iden-

the Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

The Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was a moment that roughly 10 years later, the same moment struck the Boeing

The crash happened just a few minutes after the floatation vehicles of the 298 people aboard.

The Tor is a Russian-made

"A strike by a missile, possi-

Danilov said. But as time passed, communication ultimately

"Us, as a community, we have our views on

The report and flight-tracking

passengers and nine crew

all 298 people aboard.

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

The coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

To place dogs with

Foster and Moriarty have worked with the

Sheridan Veterans Affairs Health Care System and other organizations to iden-

and are appropriate candi-

other organizations to iden-

the Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

The Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was a moment that roughly 10 years later, the same moment struck the Boeing

The crash happened just a few minutes after the floatation vehicles of the 298 people aboard.

The Tor is a Russian-made

"A strike by a missile, possi-

Danilov said. But as time passed, communication ultimately

"Us, as a community, we have our views on

The report and flight-tracking

passengers and nine crew

all 298 people aboard.

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

The coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

the coalition was left out of

Foster acknowledged that all dogs, but especially Stray to Service program

To place dogs with

Foster and Moriarty have worked with the

Sheridan Veterans Affairs Health Care System and other organizations to iden-

and are appropriate candi-

other organizations to iden-

the Sheridan Dog and Cat Shelter's executive director Jim Moriarty cuddles Mozart, a stray turned service dog Tuesday, Jan. 7, 2020.
pelosi to send impeachment articles for senate trial ‘soon’

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Nancy Pelosi says she will “soon” transmit the impeachment articles against President Donald Trump to the Senate. Pelosi says she wants to ensure the Senate receives the articles before the incoming administration of President-elect Joe Biden takes office on Jan. 20.

A likely Democratic-controlled Senate would vote to begin the trial of Trump, who was impeached by the Republican-controlled House on Jan. 13. It would take 51 votes to acquit Trump, and the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi’s decision could result in an acquittal, but the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi says she wants to ensure the Senate receives the articles before the incoming administration of President-elect Joe Biden takes office on Jan. 20.

A likely Democratic-controlled Senate would vote to begin the trial of Trump, who was impeached by the Republican-controlled House on Jan. 13. It would take 51 votes to acquit Trump, and the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi’s decision could result in an acquittal, but the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi says she wants to ensure the Senate receives the articles before the incoming administration of President-elect Joe Biden takes office on Jan. 20.

A likely Democratic-controlled Senate would vote to begin the trial of Trump, who was impeached by the Republican-controlled House on Jan. 13. It would take 51 votes to acquit Trump, and the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi’s decision could result in an acquittal, but the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi says she wants to ensure the Senate receives the articles before the incoming administration of President-elect Joe Biden takes office on Jan. 20.

A likely Democratic-controlled Senate would vote to begin the trial of Trump, who was impeached by the Republican-controlled House on Jan. 13. It would take 51 votes to acquit Trump, and the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi’s decision could result in an acquittal, but the Senate is likely to acquit him on the charges of inciting the Jan. 6 violent attack on the U.S. Capitol. Pelosi says she wants to ensure the Senate receives the articles before the incoming administration of President-elect Joe Biden takes office on Jan. 20.
Church Calendar

MOUNTAIN ALLIANCE CHURCH
- First Sunday of month: immediately following worship service (307-673-1623)

FELLOWSHIP CHURCH
- Wednesday: 6:30 p.m., Aglow (307-672-8403)

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH
- Sunday: 7:30 a.m., Glory of Zion (307-678-2848)

GRACE ANGLICAN CHURCH
- Wednesday: 6:30 p.m., prayer service (307-674-7655)

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
- Tuesday: 9 a.m. to noon, 1-3 p.m. (307-678-2848)

FAMILY LIFE CENTER
- Thursday: 9 a.m. to noon, 1-3 p.m. (307-678-2848)

BIG HORN CHURCH
- Sunday: 9 a.m. worship and communion (307-673-0023)

PASTORS UNITED IN BRIEF: A collection from Faith 2 Faith
- Though we are part of different denominations and backgrounds, we all share a common conviction centered around the lordship of Christ and the solidity of Scripture.
DiCaprio to donate $3 million for Australia wildfire relief

Los Angeles (AP) — Leonardo DiCaprio’s environmental organization will donate $3 million to help wildfire relief efforts in Australia.

DiCaprio’s Earth Alliance said in a statement Thursday that the organization started the Australian Wildfire Fund to help with an “international response to the catastrophic bushfires” currently raging in the country. The Academy Award-winning actor co-chairs the organization, which was launched last year to combat climate change and biodiversity loss.

The wildfires have scorched an area twice the size of the U.S. state of Maryland. The blazes, which have killed at least 25 people and destroyed 2,000 homes. The fires, fueled by drought and the country’s hottest and driest year on record, have been raging since September, months earlier than typical for Australia’s annual wildfire season.

The fund will work with local Australian partner organizations including Aussie Ark, Brush Heritage, and Wire Wildlife Rescue.

DiCaprio joins a growing list of celebrities that have rallied to donate to Australia. Potter, Buffet, and George Clooney, have all donated to help the country recover from the devastating fires.

Leonardo DiCaprio to donate $3 million for Australia wildfire relief $1 million through social media earlier this week. Nicole Kidman, Pink and Keith Urban have donated as well.

Metallica said they will donate $100,000 to firefighters and emergency services agency in Victoria. Pink, Absoul Walker-Bridge said she would auction off her Vogue outfit and have the proceeds go to fire-fighters gathered at the Golden Globes on Sunday.

Chicago (AP) — A fight between two of R. Kelly’s girlfriends inside the embattled singer’s Trump Tower condominium led to a domestic battery charge against one of them and sent the other to the hospital, Chicago police said Thursday.

Joycelyn Savage, 24, was taken into custody after allegedly punching a 22-year-old woman in the face Wednesday, police said. She was charged with misdemeanor domestic battery.

Savage’s hands were shackled as she appeared in Cook County Circuit Court on Thursday to pled not guilty to the charges. The assistant public defender representing Savage asked that she be released on a recognizance bond, and Judge Erica Orr agreed.

The brawl between the women, who had been living with Kelly before he was jailed last year on sexual abuse and other charges, began shortly after 2 p.m. when police were called to the Trump Tower building for a “battery in progress” involving two women. Officer Anthony Spicuzza told the Chicago Sun-Times that the older woman allegedly hit the younger woman in the face.

The younger woman was taken to a hospital, police said. She has an argument that became physical.

Spicuzza said, adding that the injuries to the 22-year-old had until recently been living with Kelly at the Trump Tower address. He is currently being aired on Lifetime.

Spicuzza said she would arrested R. Kelly girlfriend 24-year-old woman — a “handler” for Kelly — arrived to pick up Kelly’s “swords and his Grammy and stuff,” the Chicago Sun-Times reported.

“Savages hit her with her hands and her phone and tried to kick her, as well,” Spicuzza said.

The 22-year-old’s name came up last month in Brooklyn, New York, when prosecutors there asked for any Cook County marriage records, records show. The 22-year-old had until recently been living with Kelly at the Trump Tower address. Kelly, 50, is being held without bond in Chicago’s Metropolitan Correctional Center. He charged with a variety of crimes in three states.

Kelly has pleaded not guilty to federal charges in Chicago and New York of racketeering scheme to sexually abuse girls. Kelly is also accused in Minnesota of offering a 17-year-old boy money in 2001 to dress up as a barman and dance. He has pleaded not guilty to the charges.

A documentary series chronicling Kelly’s alleged sexual abuse of minors is currently being aired on Lifetime.
A 10. MELIE DESIJE PLANE

11. NO MEDIE WAGET THE PLANE

12. JOY MUSIEN DE WAGE ON THE XFL, THE WAGET ON THE XFL, THE

13. SHERIDAN — WYO Performing Arts and Education Center will offer a screening of "The Met Live in HD" beginning at 12:30 p.m. The screening will feature "Wozzeck," which tells the story of a soldier driven to murder by his common-law wife's infidelity, among other challenges.

14. CLEARMONT — The Clear Creek FFA has organized a clothes drive through Jan. 30. Students are asking for donations of clothes, shoes and other items you are not using anymore. Volunteers ask that items be in good and useful condition. Donations may be dropped off at the Arvada–Lusk High School.

15. TODAY IN HISTORY

16. TODAY IN HISTORY
DOROTHY ELIZABETH (Clapp) King

June 15, 1922 – January 3, 2020

Dorothy Elizabeth (Clapp) King, passed away on Friday, January 3, 2020, in her hometown of Sheridan, Wyo.

She was born on June 15, 1922, to Ruth and Thomas Clapp in Denver, Colo. She was the oldest of five children.

She married Kenneth D. King on November 17, 1943, in Longmont, Colo. They had four children; Michael, Patricia, Karen and Thomas.

Dorothy was an active member of the First Congregational Church of Sheridan, Wyo., and was a charter member of the Kiwanis Club of Sheridan.

She was passionate about her family and loved spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include her husband of 76 years, Kenneth; four children; Michael King of Aurora, Colo., Patricia King of Sheridan, Wyo., Karen (Kevin) Faillace of Gillette, Wyo., and Thomas (Debra) King of Sheridan, Wyo.; 12 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Dorothy was predeceased by her parents, Ruth and Thomas Clapp; brothers Charles (Liz) Clapp and Thomas (Mary) Clapp; and sister, Ruth (Scott) Rodgers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sheridan Senior Center, 211 Smith St., Sheridan, Wyo. 82801.

Memorial arrangements are under the care of Kane Funeral Home, 824 2nd Ave. W., Sheridan, Wyo., 82801.

Another women's name is Dorothy Clapp King.

The family of Dorothy Elizabeth (Clapp) King is mourning the loss of a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Obituary by Kane Funeral Home.
Second challenge filed to brand inspection order

PINEDALE — Prosecutors are arguing that there is a “reasonable suspicion” the law enforcement, sheriffs and court commissioners in Sublette County violated probable cause. That decision — a key element in the Wyoming Supreme Court’s 2015 ruling on the.brand inspection law — requires that law enforcement and judges must be present in the field during searches of livestock, poultry or carcasses to determine “reasonable suspicion” of wrongdoing. Without that suspicion, searches and other forms of inspection are prohibited. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday. The case was filed by Richard Rammell, a Rock Springs veterinarian who was referred to the Sublette County Sheriff’s Office for a horse that was killed during a roadside inspection. The case arises from Sublette County’s refusal to brand inspections.

When the prosecution’s burden falls on the defendant and a suspect is under arrest, the prosecution must prove probable cause to justify a search. Probable cause is “a reasonable suspicion that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime can be found by searching the suspect.” That evidence can include anything from a suspect’s statements to a search of a vehicle or home.

The Wyoming Supreme Court has ruled that it is “legitimate for law enforcement officers to conduct searches and seizures of vehicles and homes to determine whether a crime has been committed and to obtain evidence. The purpose of the search is to provide a basis for further investigation.”

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

A woman named Jennifer Reeder, who lives in Sublette County, filed a complaint with the Wyoming Supreme Court in 2015 challenging the constitutionality of Sublette County’s search of a horse owned by Rammell. The Supreme Court ruled that Sublette County violated the Constitution by searching Rammell’s horse without probable cause. The court also ruled that the Sublette County commissioners could not overrule the district judge’s decision to suppress the evidence.

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

The case is the first challenge to the brand inspection law since the Wyoming Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of the law in 2015. The case is a significant test of the constitutionality of the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision to strike down the brand inspection law.

Second challenge filed to brand inspection order

PINEDALE — Prosecutors are arguing that there is a “reasonable suspicion” the law enforcement, sheriffs and court commissioners in Sublette County violated probable cause. That decision — a key element in the Wyoming Supreme Court’s 2015 ruling on the.brand inspection law — requires that law enforcement and judges must be present in the field during searches of livestock, poultry or carcasses to determine “reasonable suspicion” of wrongdoing. Without that suspicion, searches and other forms of inspection are prohibited. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday. The case was filed by Richard Rammell, a Rock Springs veterinarian who was referred to the Sublette County Sheriff’s Office for a horse that was killed during a roadside inspection. The case arises from Sublette County’s refusal to brand inspections.

When the prosecution’s burden falls on the defendant and a suspect is under arrest, the prosecution must prove probable cause to justify a search. Probable cause is “a reasonable suspicion that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime can be found by searching the suspect.” That evidence can include anything from a suspect’s statements to a search of a vehicle or home.

The Wyoming Supreme Court has ruled that it is “legitimate for law enforcement officers to conduct searches and seizures of vehicles and homes to determine whether a crime has been committed and to obtain evidence. The purpose of the search is to provide a basis for further investigation.”

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

A woman named Jennifer Reeder, who lives in Sublette County, filed a complaint with the Wyoming Supreme Court in 2015 challenging the constitutionality of Sublette County’s search of a horse owned by Rammell. The Supreme Court ruled that Sublette County violated the Constitution by searching Rammell’s horse without probable cause. The court also ruled that the Sublette County commissioners could not overrule the district judge’s decision to suppress the evidence.

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

The case is the first challenge to the brand inspection law since the Wyoming Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of the law in 2015. The case is a significant test of the constitutionality of the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision to strike down the brand inspection law.

Second challenge filed to brand inspection order

PINEDALE — Prosecutors are arguing that there is a “reasonable suspicion” the law enforcement, sheriffs and court commissioners in Sublette County violated probable cause. That decision — a key element in the Wyoming Supreme Court’s 2015 ruling on the.brand inspection law — requires that law enforcement and judges must be present in the field during searches of livestock, poultry or carcasses to determine “reasonable suspicion” of wrongdoing. Without that suspicion, searches and other forms of inspection are prohibited. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday. The case was filed by Richard Rammell, a Rock Springs veterinarian who was referred to the Sublette County Sheriff’s Office for a horse that was killed during a roadside inspection. The case arises from Sublette County’s refusal to brand inspections.

When the prosecution’s burden falls on the defendant and a suspect is under arrest, the prosecution must prove probable cause to justify a search. Probable cause is “a reasonable suspicion that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime can be found by searching the suspect.” That evidence can include anything from a suspect’s statements to a search of a vehicle or home.

The Wyoming Supreme Court has ruled that it is “legitimate for law enforcement officers to conduct searches and seizures of vehicles and homes to determine whether a crime has been committed and to obtain evidence. The purpose of the search is to provide a basis for further investigation.”

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

A woman named Jennifer Reeder, who lives in Sublette County, filed a complaint with the Wyoming Supreme Court in 2015 challenging the constitutionality of Sublette County’s search of a horse owned by Rammell. The Supreme Court ruled that Sublette County violated the Constitution by searching Rammell’s horse without probable cause. The court also ruled that the Sublette County commissioners could not overrule the district judge’s decision to suppress the evidence.

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

The case is the first challenge to the brand inspection law since the Wyoming Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of the law in 2015. The case is a significant test of the constitutionality of the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision to strike down the brand inspection law.

Second challenge filed to brand inspection order

PINEDALE — Prosecutors are arguing that there is a “reasonable suspicion” the law enforcement, sheriffs and court commissioners in Sublette County violated probable cause. That decision — a key element in the Wyoming Supreme Court’s 2015 ruling on the.brand inspection law — requires that law enforcement and judges must be present in the field during searches of livestock, poultry or carcasses to determine “reasonable suspicion” of wrongdoing. Without that suspicion, searches and other forms of inspection are prohibited. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday. The case was filed by Richard Rammell, a Rock Springs veterinarian who was referred to the Sublette County Sheriff’s Office for a horse that was killed during a roadside inspection. The case arises from Sublette County’s refusal to brand inspections.

When the prosecution’s burden falls on the defendant and a suspect is under arrest, the prosecution must prove probable cause to justify a search. Probable cause is “a reasonable suspicion that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime can be found by searching the suspect.” That evidence can include anything from a suspect’s statements to a search of a vehicle or home.

The Wyoming Supreme Court has ruled that it is “legitimate for law enforcement officers to conduct searches and seizures of vehicles and homes to determine whether a crime has been committed and to obtain evidence. The purpose of the search is to provide a basis for further investigation.”

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

A woman named Jennifer Reeder, who lives in Sublette County, filed a complaint with the Wyoming Supreme Court in 2015 challenging the constitutionality of Sublette County’s search of a horse owned by Rammell. The Supreme Court ruled that Sublette County violated the Constitution by searching Rammell’s horse without probable cause. The court also ruled that the Sublette County commissioners could not overrule the district judge’s decision to suppress the evidence.

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

The case is the first challenge to the brand inspection law since the Wyoming Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of the law in 2015. The case is a significant test of the constitutionality of the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision to strike down the brand inspection law.

Second challenge filed to brand inspection order

PINEDALE — Prosecutors are arguing that there is a “reasonable suspicion” the law enforcement, sheriffs and court commissioners in Sublette County violated probable cause. That decision — a key element in the Wyoming Supreme Court’s 2015 ruling on the.brand inspection law — requires that law enforcement and judges must be present in the field during searches of livestock, poultry or carcasses to determine “reasonable suspicion” of wrongdoing. Without that suspicion, searches and other forms of inspection are prohibited. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday. The case was filed by Richard Rammell, a Rock Springs veterinarian who was referred to the Sublette County Sheriff’s Office for a horse that was killed during a roadside inspection. The case arises from Sublette County’s refusal to brand inspections.

When the prosecution’s burden falls on the defendant and a suspect is under arrest, the prosecution must prove probable cause to justify a search. Probable cause is “a reasonable suspicion that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime can be found by searching the suspect.” That evidence can include anything from a suspect’s statements to a search of a vehicle or home.

The Wyoming Supreme Court has ruled that it is “legitimate for law enforcement officers to conduct searches and seizures of vehicles and homes to determine whether a crime has been committed and to obtain evidence. The purpose of the search is to provide a basis for further investigation.”

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

A woman named Jennifer Reeder, who lives in Sublette County, filed a complaint with the Wyoming Supreme Court in 2015 challenging the constitutionality of Sublette County’s search of a horse owned by Rammell. The Supreme Court ruled that Sublette County violated the Constitution by searching Rammell’s horse without probable cause. The court also ruled that the Sublette County commissioners could not overrule the district judge’s decision to suppress the evidence.

The prosecution argues that the Sublette County commissioners did not prove that probable cause existed and that the search was therefore illegal. The Sublette County commissioners are scheduled to hear the case on Monday.

The case is the first challenge to the brand inspection law since the Wyoming Supreme Court ruled on the constitutionality of the law in 2015. The case is a significant test of the constitutionality of the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision to strike down the brand inspection law.
HONOLULU (AP) — The wind blew so hard that palm trees looked as though they were made of rubber.

The Pacific looked angrier than usual. Some of the sights Thursday at the Sony Open made outdoor golf in Hawaii was no vacation.

Collin Morikawa managed better than everyone. He learned enough from his 6-over par when play was suspended by darkness Wednesday that he has not regretted the decision.

“It’s tough out here,” Morikawa said. “If you have a 20-foot birdie putt, you’ve got to factor in the wind, the rain, everything. So playing last week I got me prepared for today in that way, and I look forward to the next few days.”

Ryan Palmer was among four players at 67, with Marc Leishman and Corey Conners among those at 68.

Justin Thomas, who won a playoff last week in Kapalua, struggled early in the wind and had to keep it together for a 72. A year ago, that might have been the first step toward a weekend off. On this day, it was inside the cut line.

Morikawa will play host to the UNLV Runnin’ Rebels in another showdown with 5-12 overall record and a mark in MW play after falling at Boise State 73-66 on Wednesday. UNLV allows 67.3 points per game, ranks fourth in the MW region in defense, second in the league to lists of approved betting events.

“We’re definitely interested in looking to bet on the XFL,” said Jason Scott, vice president of trading of ROAR Digital, the operators of BetMGM. “We’re definitely interested in applying to bet on the XFL,” said Jason Scott, vice president of trading of ROAR Digital, the operators of BetMGM.

States that have already approved betting on the XFL include Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Iowa. Nevada says its sports books are already authorized to take XFL bets under existing regulations.

While many sports fans are picking NFL playoff teams to bet on or putting their cash for the Super Bowl, yet another opportunity to wager football is on the horizon.

A look at the matchup

Wyoming leads into Saturday’s contest with a 5-12 overall record and a .500 mark in conference play after falling to No. 7 San Diego State 72-0 on Wednesday.

The Cowboys rank third in the MW in scoring defense, second in the league to lists of approved betting events.
Before I die, I would like to resolve this problem and arrange for the ashes to have a permanent resting place, preferably in Hawaii. I have a nephew who lives on the Big Island, where the scattering ceremony can take place. He would be pleased to be in light of my husband's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took

Dear Abby: I applaud your caring heart and your determination to carry out this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes. I took this man's last wishes.
Hintage from Heloise

Dear Heloise: Of all the places in San Antonio to get an oil change, I happened to pull into the one that is fluent in Spanish. On the sign it says "NUEVOS KITTENS" that morning. He couldn't have been more than three or four days old. An abscess had formed on his back. The mother feral cat would not let him have his formula, but I had a kit at a pet store, and the guy alive. So, on the way home, I bought a kit at a pet store, and the guy alive. So, on the way home, I bought a two-step one milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Don’t cry over spilt milk. Avoid dwelling on past mistakes and forgive others who cross the line. If you put in toangled nut or a valuable relationship trouble, it might sink back words that smack of recriminations.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): It may be tempting to retaliate when things don’t go your way. Attend to domest- ic duties to make productive use of your spare time. Put shopping plans on hold until there is a better time to spend your money. Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Let it go. Rather than get- ting wrapped up in minute and petty details, try to be more philosophical. A ca- sual meeting could spark jealousy or create animosity, so it’s wise to remain conscientious about prop- erty.
Notice of Publication
You are hereby notified that a Petition for Name Change, Civil Action No. 2019-415 has been filed on behalf of Sarah E. Michelena, Sheridan, WY 82801, to change the name of a minor child. Written notice of this action has been served upon the undersigned on this 30th day of December, 2019. A hearing is set for this 7th day of January, 2020, at which time the Court will enter an order appointing counsel for the minor child. All those having an interest in said change are required to file their objections with the Clerk of District Court, District, Sheridan County, Wyoming, whose address is 319 W. Dow St., Sheridan, WY 82801, the object and prayer of which is to grant the change of name. DATED this 3rd day of December, 2019, By Rene Botten, Clerk of Court Deputy Clerk

PUBLICATION REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING SNOW REMOVAL AT THE DIETZ WATER TREATMENT PLANT
The Wyoming Department of Transportation will publish a Request for Proposals for the furnishing of snow removal services at the Dietz Water Treatment Plant, 982 10th Avenue East, Sheridan, Wyoming. The specific location is in accordance with Section 16-6-102 in the amount of five percent. Interested parties should contact the Procurement Services Manager (RFP) available for download at QuestCDN.com.

PUBLISH: January 3, 10 & 17, 2020

Another notice is hereby given that a Petition for Name Change, Civil Action No. 2019-415 has been filed on behalf of Sarah E. Michelena, Sheridan, WY 82801, to change the name of a minor child. Written notice of this action has been served upon the undersigned on this 30th day of December, 2019. A hearing is set for this 7th day of January, 2020, at which time the Court will enter an order appointing counsel for the minor child. All those having an interest in said change are required to file their objections with the Clerk of District Court, District, Sheridan County, Wyoming, whose address is 319 W. Dow St., Sheridan, WY 82801, the object and prayer of which is to grant the change of name. DATED this 3rd day of December, 2019, By Rene Botten, Clerk of Court Deputy Clerk

Notice of Publication
You are hereby notified that a Petition for Name Change, Civil Action No. 2019-415 has been filed on behalf of Sarah E. Michelena, Sheridan, WY 82801, to change the name of a minor child. Written notice of this action has been served upon the undersigned on this 30th day of December, 2019. A hearing is set for this 7th day of January, 2020, at which time the Court will enter an order appointing counsel for the minor child. All those having an interest in said change are required to file their objections with the Clerk of District Court, District, Sheridan County, Wyoming, whose address is 319 W. Dow St., Sheridan, WY 82801, the object and prayer of which is to grant the change of name. DATED this 3rd day of December, 2019, By Rene Botten, Clerk of Court Deputy Clerk

PUBLIC NOTICE
REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS FOR FURNISHING SNOW REMOVAL AT THE DIETZ WATER TREATMENT PLANT
The City of Sheridan reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to award any purchase order at the sole discretion of the City Council. The City of Sheridan reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to award any purchase order at the sole discretion of the City Council. The City of Sheridan reserves the right to reject any and all proposals and to award any purchase order at the sole discretion of the City Council.
BETTING: New rules

Regulators in New Jersey, where the league’s New York Guardians will play, would not comment on whether they are considering allowing XFL bets—or even whether anyone has asked them to. As of Thursday, the XFL was not listed on the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement’s website among events authorized for wagering. Several sports books, however, say they have asked New Jersey for permission to offer XFL bets.

“Of course we’re interested in action for U.S. operators, so given the partnership with Genius, we think it’s something that we should consider,” said Patrick Eichner, a spokesman for PointsBet. “The XFL numbers for the XFL.”

Interactive, which operates BetRivers.com in Illinois, as well as retail in other states that are serious about sports betting, said it does not see Wyoming as a region for XFL bets, at least to start the season. McCaffrey Billings have also enjoyed the fact they live at home and can have the support of their friends and families at every game. The Billings brothers and the Hawks are back at home Friday and Saturday night to face theBitte Cobras. Friday’s game starts at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday’s game starts at 7 p.m.

BROTHERS: Lifestyle of junior hockey different from AAA

“I’ve been hoping for a new conference and league for a long time,” said Scheib. “Our alliance with Genius Sports to monitor betting activity on XFL games and warn of any suspicious activity.”

“Sports betting is growing rapidly in the U.S. and we are gearing up to be a good citizen and thoughtful participant in the marketplace.” Jeffrey Pollack, the XFL’s president and chief operating officer, said in a press release. “Our alliance with Genius Sports is an important first step and foundational element.”

After a one-and-done season in 2001, the league owned by World Wrestling Entertainment president Vince McMahon will try again starting Feb. 8. McMahon’s XFL’s New York Guardians will play, at home and can have the support of their friends and families at every game.

As of Thursday, the XFL was not listed on the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement’s website among events authorized for wagering. Several sports books, however, say they have asked New Jersey for permission to offer XFL bets.

“Of course we’re interested in action for U.S. operators, so given the partnership with Genius, we think it’s something that we should consider,” said Patrick Eichner, a spokesman for PointsBet. “The XFL numbers for the XFL.”

Interactive, which operates BetRivers.com in Illinois, as well as retail in other states that are serious about sports betting, said it does not see Wyoming as a region for XFL bets, at least to start the season.

“I’ve been hoping for a new conference and league for a long time,” said Scheib. “Our alliance with Genius Sports to monitor betting activity on XFL games and warn of any suspicious activity.”

“Sports betting is growing rapidly in the U.S. and we are gearing up to be a good citizen and thoughtful participant in the marketplace.” Jeffrey Pollack, the XFL’s president and chief operating officer, said in a press release. “Our alliance with Genius Sports is an important first step and foundational element.”

After a one-and-done season in 2001, the league owned by World Wrestling Entertainment president Vince McMahon will try again starting Feb. 8. McMahon’s XFL’s New York Guardians will play.

COWBOYS: Wyoming trails all-time series against UNLV 18-40 dating back to 1966

Wyoming trails the all-time series against UNLV 18-40 in a series that dates back to 1966. UNLV has taken five of the last six meetings in the series with the Pokes win coming at home on Jan. 20, 2017 by a score of 60-46.